Manager Growth Marketing for Paid Search

As a Growth Hacker driving business growth through innovative and data-driven marketing strategies. Responsible for campaign execution, planning, and optimization for SEO and paid search across Google, Yahoo! Japan, and Bing platforms. Accountable for keyword research, web page copy, ad copy optimization, and budget management.

Identifying the new opportunities and building recommendations to grow search programs. Responsible for media agencies and cross-functional teams to deliver reporting solutions and optimize performance. Always looking to bring my expertise in growth hacking to our brand and collaborating with teams across the globe to drive the success.

- Cost-effective revenue generation: Achieved the same revenue targets as the previous period with a 50% reduction in marketing budget, demonstrating a significant improvement in ROI and marketing efficiency.
- PMax optimization for non-branded search: Successfully implemented and optimized Performance Max (PMax) campaigns for non-branded search terms, achieving a 0.5 ROAS. This strategic use of PMax contributed to control the cannibalization and incremental sessions and revenue. 50% increase in non-branded budget contributed in the 5% of revenue.
- Brand presence recovery: Reversed the revenue even with a declining brand presence trend, increasing both organic traffic and revenue by 5% since joining in December 2022. This was achieved through a comprehensive SEO and paid search strategy and targeted content optimization.
- Organic traffic improvement: Successfully recovered organic traffic through strategic SEO initiatives, including on-page optimization for targeted branded keywords, research on popular trending keywords in skincare. This resulted in a 5% increase in organic traffic and contributed to overall revenue growth.
- Cross-functional collaboration: Collaborated effectively with brand team, content and creative teams and product team to align marketing campaigns with overall business objectives and ensure consistent brand messaging across all channels.

- Paid search strategy & execution: Developed and executed paid search campaigns across Google, Yahoo! Japan, and Bing platforms, managing a monthly budget of ¥2 to 4 million. Consistently monitored campaign performance, making data-driven adjustments to optimize for revenue, conversions and ROI.
- Agency management: Managed relationships with media agencies, providing clear direction and feedback to ensure campaigns were executed effectively and within budget. Collaborated with agencies to develop reporting solutions and optimize campaign performance.
